

1. Social Safety

- 1.1. The association W.S.L.V. " Wageningen Warriors has to comply with Regulations Sexual Intimidation (NOC-NSF), which can be found here via the "here" button via this link: <https://centrumveiligensport.nl/grensoverschrijdend-gedrag/seksuele-intimidatie-en-misbruik>
- 1.1.1. Code of Conduct for mentors/supervisors, e.g. people giving clinics. Which is in short: there is a duty to report any breaches of the Code of Conduct and Regulations for the Board and mentors/supervisors.
- 1.2. The association W.S.L.V. " Wageningen Warriors has a Code of Conduct to prevent Sexual intimidation in the sport, the extensive version for different personnel can be found here:
- 1.2.1. The code of conduct regarding board members is derived from the NOC*NSF code of conduct and can be found by clicking on the "here" button on the following web page: <https://centrumveiligensport.nl/preventie/gedragcodes/gedragcode-voor-functionarissen-bestuurders-werknemers-niet-zijnde-sporters>
- 1.2.2. The code of conduct regarding coaches and mentors/supervisors is derived from the NOC*NSF code of conduct and can be found by clicking on the "here" button on the following web page: <https://centrumveiligensport.nl/preventie/gedragcodes/gedragcode-voor-trainerscoaches-en-begeleiders>
- 1.2.3. The code of conduct regarding referees and other officials is derived from the NOC*NSF code of conduct and can be found by clicking on the "here" button on the following web page: <https://centrumveiligensport.nl/preventie/gedragcodes/gedragcode-voor-scheidsrechters-en-officials>
- 1.2.4. The code of conduct regarding athletes is derived from the NOC*NSF code of conduct and can be found by clicking on the "here" button on the following web page: <https://centrumveiligensport.nl/preventie/gedragcodes/gedragcodes-voor-sporters>